to the wedding of the year...

Yours

courtesy of the Penn House

The Penn House is one of the longest established venues in the Triad, which is why couples have been trusting us for over 40 years with some of the most special days of their lives.

On the National Register of Historic Places, The Penn House is a magnificent 12,500-square-foot home built around 1908 and is open for special events, weddings, business meetings and other functions. Furnished in antiques, the home offers ambiance not found in most meeting facilities.

Owned and Operated by the City of Reidsville and a 2016 and 2020 Wedding Wire Couples Choice Award Recipient.

Classic Elegance and Historic Charm

ALL AT AN AFFORDABLE PRICE

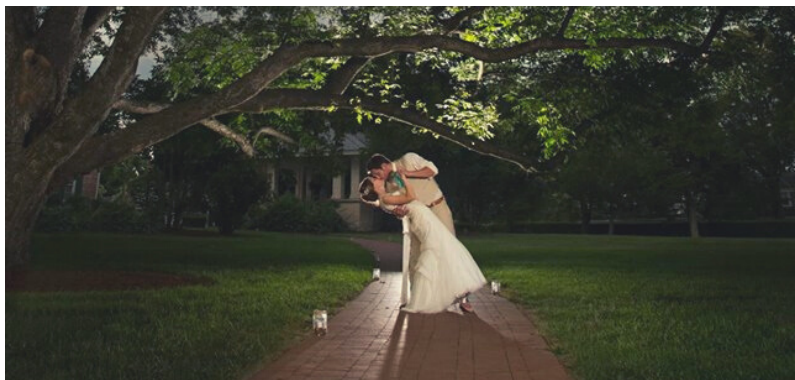

If you are looking for classic elegance then the Penn House in Reidsville should be at the top of the list!

The Colonial Revival is situated on 4 beautifully landscaped acres right in the historic district of Downtown Reidsville. Surrounded by 6ft hedges offering tremendous privacy you will never know you are in a neighborhood surrounded by beautiful historic homes.

The grounds offer many areas for a wedding and reception. The dance patio is dotted with Edison lights as well as commercial landscaping lighting so that even in the evening there is gorgeous lighting showcasing the happy couple.
